Cures Woman's Weaknesses.

We refer to that boon to weak, nervous, suffering women known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. John Fyfe one of the Editorial Staff of THE ECLECTIC MEDICAL REVIEW Says of Unicorn root (Helonics Dioica) which is one of the chief ingredients of the "Favorite tracerintion":

"A remedy which invariably acts as a uterine invigorator " makes for normal activity of the entire reproductive system.
He continues "in Helonias we have a medicament which more fully answers the above purposes thom ony other drug with which I am advantated. In the treatment of diseases peculiar to women it is seldom that a case in seen which does not present some indication for this remedial agent." Dr. Fyfe further says: "The following are among the leading indications for Helonias (Unicorn coot). Pain or-aching in the back, with sleucorrhea: atonic (weak) condition of the reproductive organs of some mental depression and irweakl condition of the reproductive of tomen, mental depression and ing. esociated with chronic diseases of odective organs of women constant of the first of the

If more or less of the above symptoms are present, no invalid woman can offectiver than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, one of the leading ingredients of which is unless resulting the medical properties of which is most faithfully represents.

Of Golden Seal root, another prominent ingredient of "Favorite Prescription," Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says:

"It is an important remedy in disorders of the womb. In all catarrhal conditions." and seneral entesphement, it is useful,"

Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Clincinnatt, says of Golden Seal root:

"In relation to its general effects on the system, there is no medicine in use about which there is each general unaumity of opinion. It is universally regarded as the tonic useful in all doublitated states."

all debilitated states.

Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, says of Golden Seal:

"Valuable in uterine hemorrhage, neuorhagis (fooding) and congestive dysmenorbage apaintil menstruation."

Dr. Plerce's Favorite Prescription fasthfully represents all the above named ingredients and cures the diseases for which they are recommended.

POPE DRAFTS NEW OATH.

Pius X bas drawn up a new and very rigid form of oath to be taken by all cardinals who participate in the election of his successor. It runs as fol-

"We, the Cardinal bishops, the priests and deacons of the Holy Roman Ohurch, promise, resolve and swear to observe inviolably and to the letter everything contained in the constitution of the Supreme Pontifi Pius X on vacancy. We also promise, resolve and swear that whoever of us may be by the disposition of Providence raised to the disposition of Providence raised to be Roman pontiff will never cease to proclaim, defend integrally and strenu-ously also the temporal rights, especial-ity concerning the civil principality of the Roman pontiff and the liberty of the Holy See; and that he aball again make this promise and cath after his elevation to the lofty office of supreme pont fi. But we especially promise and swear that we shall most accurately and with regard to all, including attendants or conclavists, observe secrecy in every-thing relating in any way whatsoever to the election of the Roman pontifi and in those things which are done in the conclave or place of election, and that we shall never in any way violate this secrecy, either during the conclave itself or even after the election of the itself, or even after the election of the itself, or even after the election of the new pontiff, unless special faculty or express dispensation be given us by the future pontiff himself; and also as shall never in any way accept under any pretext from any civil power whavever the office of proposing a veto or exclusive, even under the form of a mere desire, and that we shall not make known desire, and that we shall not make known such veto, however it may have become known to us, either to the entire College of cardinals, taken as a body, or to individual fathers or cardinals, in wriing or orally, directly and proximately, or indirectly and through others, either before or during the conclave, and that we shall never lend favor to any intervention or intercession or any other method whatever by which the lay powers of any grade or order whatso-ever may wish to interfere in the elec-tion of the postiff."

BANK ROBBERS FOILED.

Samuel Katz, a bank clerk, was alone with $7,000 in gold iraids the cage of the brauch bank of Max Kobre, at Williamsburg, N. Y., yesterday, when he got the shock of his life. The shock emanated from the mouth of a pistol which was shoved under his nose at the same time that a tough individual ordered him to pass over that $7,000.

Just about the time that Ka's was settling himself inside of his locked cage,

Just then the man pulled his revolver and pushed it through the meshes of the cage in front of the clerk.

Capital punishment is provided for in cases of kidnapping in the District of Columbia by a bill introduced in the House yesterday by Representative Rodenberg, of Illinois.

Mr. Rodenberg's bill has two sections
The first deals with the kidnspping of is fants under 12 years of ago for the purpose of concealing or imprisoning them. The punishment for such cases is to be life imprisonment or prison for any t rm of years.

Section 2 of the bill provides "that every person who shall forcibly seize and screely confice within the District, or take, carry, or send, or cause to be taken, carried or sent cut of the District, a man and two boys, neither more than 15, entered. The man stepped to the cashier's wind; w and asked the price of tickets to Europe for the three. As he did so one of the boys a tempted to lock the door from the luside.

Just then the man and a locked case, taken, carried or sent out of the District, any person against his will or against the will of the parent, or legal cuatodian of such person, or money or other valuable things, or concession from such person, his parent guardian, or large person, his parent guardian, or legal custodian * * shall, upon conviction, suffer death, or be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for life or any other term not less than five Where kidospping is prompted by a desire for gain the bill prescribes the death penalty; but where it is not inspired for gain life imprisonment is provided.
